(Special to The Evening World.)
PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 3.—Having passed the dreaded thirteen the Giants to-day felt able to continue their streak indefinitely, and McGraw knew of o one he would rather work on than l'ittsburg. Both tcan . I maed eager for battle and the 10,000 people had no rouble in getting all there was coming n the way of excitement.

Hans Wagner is out in a public statement to-day in which he says he did not throw that ball at Umpire Bauseit to Howard and that it went a "little wild." Hans further charges that Umpire Baunswine called him a bad name and he wants to know if ball players can't have protection from umpires who abuse them.

According to the early announce-ments, McGinnity was slated to do business for the Giants and Sam Leever was to oppose him. Up to this time the Giants have always had a picnic with Leever in the box, and he has been frequently dubbed "the batters' delight." The winning of to-day's game

Browne led off with a left hook, slapping the ball against left field fence for two bases, and Doulin followed with a signific to deep left for three bases, scoring Brown. McGann then cut loose with a hot single to centre, scoring Donlin. It looked as if a bomb had exploded under Sam Leever and he had shot skyward. Mertes was called out on strikes and McGann stole second. Dahlen was allowed to walk. Devlin filed to Leach, McGann taking third. Ritchey threw out to Gilbert.

Dahlen took Wagner's grounder with ease, and Howard took the count. Brain whipped a safe drive over sec-ond, but Ritchey ended it with a sharp rap to Devlin, NO RUNS.

McGann took first by the easy route and was followed by a single by Mertes, but big Dan got too ambitious and was thrown out trying to reach third. In the mean time Mertes took second. Dahlen went out on a hot one to Leever. Mertes taking third. Devlin was hit an awful jolt in the kidneys which for a moment staggered him. Gilbert filed out to Brain. NO RUNS.

Gilbert made a great catch of Peits's short fly to right, and Leever struck out. Clymer was thrown out by Devilin. NO RUNS.

The balance of the card consisted of well matched fields that furnished interesting contests and good betting. The attendances keep up wonderfully, though there are complaints from out of town visitors as to poor service. This should be retinedled by the association, as the out of town patronage cuts a big figure in the gate receipts. The weather was fine and the track fast.
